

National Coalition Academy Training Available- Baltimore (In-Person)

Please find the NCA Cohort 7 – Baltimore (All In-Person) Training details below.

March’s training date is near!!!!

If you know of any coalition interested in attending, please let me know. We have several coalition slots open to be filled. We want as many coalitions as possible in the DMV area to attend. This is a great opportunity for coalitions to get important information about prevention and coalition development to meet qualifications for DFC funding.

I need your help to get the word out in the DMV metropolitan area. If anyone is interested, please send your interest to nca@cadca.org.

Research Into Action Webinar: Impact of Vaping Prevention Advertisements on US Adolescents

In this Research Into Action webinar, hosted by CADCA's Geographic Health Equity Alliance \(GHEA\) and the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill's Communicating for Health Impact \(CHI\) Lab, findings were presented from the recent article, "Impact of Vaping Prevention Advertisements on US Adolescents," published in JAMA Network Open. This webinar featured findings about the Real Cost vaping prevention advertisements and their effects on vaping & cigarette smoking outcomes.

You can read the full article or find more information about past webinars on the GHEA website. For questions, please contact ghea@cadca.org.

Effective Coalition Leadership

What is "effective leadership"? How do I lead coalition members who are mostly volunteers? And another thing, how do I lead comprehensive strategies across an entire community? Yeah, that's a tall order and several of us have sat in a corner trying to figure it all out. This interactive session will cover the transformational leadership model and how it can be used to inspire community partners. It will also coach community change practices to coalition members. Finally, participants will be placed in groups to discuss how they would apply the leadership model to their work context and community. And hopefully we'll spend less time in our corners.
